Martin Glenn
United States Bankruptcy Judge
RE.
ResCap Borrower Claim Trust NO. 773

Case No 12-12020 MG

Honorable Judge Glenn;

I request your review of the payment I received for my claim;
I was paid only 30.1% of the claim you approved and Somehow the awarded unsecured claim was changed to a "convenience claim", (see the attached proof of claim) payment I received from trustee Peter S. Kravitz.

I was originally told by Residential Capital that my HELOC account was only frozen and that letter gave me the impression that this was a temporary condition during the restructuring under Chapter 11, (see attached 5-24-12 letter).
I believe the reduction to only 30.1% is another misleading action on the part of Residential Capital.

I have reviewed all the documents I received related to the bankruptcy of ResCap, but I cannot find any reference to 30.1%.
I hereby request your review to determine if ResCap has paid my claim as you ordered.

Thank you for all the time you put in to the judgement of ResCap's bankruptcy claim.

Sincerely

U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New

Payment of Proof of Claim No. 773

Dear Claimant:

I am writing to you in my capacity as the Trustee for the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust (the "Borrower Trust" or "Trust") established pursuant to the Debtors' Chapter 11 Plan (the "Plan") and the Borrower Trust Agreement.

Under the Borrower Trust Agreement, the amount of your Allowed Claim $6,000.00 qualifies you for special treatment as a Borrower Convenience Claim. As the holder of a Borrower Convenience Claim, you are entitled to a Borrower Convenience Claim Payment of 30.1 percent of your claim (the distribution percentage under the Borrower Trust Agreement for your Allowed Claim) plus an incentive or bonus. The Borrower Convenience Claim Payment is in the amount of $2,056.00 or $1,806.00, which is 30.1 % of your Allowed Claim amount rounded to the nearest dollar plus an incentive or bonus of $250.00.

I am pleased to enclose a check in the amount of $2,056.00 in payment of the Trust's first and final distribution under the Plan. This distribution represents your Borrower Convenience Claim Payment and is the total amount you are entitled to receive under the Borrower Trust Agreement and Plan.

To avoid forfeiting your distribution, please cash your enclosed check promptly. Under section 4.5 of the Trust Agreement, any payment that is unclaimed for a period of 6 months after payment shall be forfeited. Any request for reissuance of your check must be made promptly and in any event prior to the expiration of the 6-month period referred to in the previous sentence. It must be made in writing and directed to my attention at the above address.

If you have questions about the legal or tax aspects of the distribution, please contact your legal or tax advisors. Neither the trustee nor its attorneys or other advisors may advise you about the effect of the enclosed distribution on your rights and obligations.

Sincerely,

Peter S. Kravitz
Trustee, ResCap Borrower Claims Trust

May 24, 2012

Dear HELOC customer,

Residential Capital, LLC (ResCap), recently announced that it and its subsidiaries are restructuring under Chapter 11. ResCap is the parent company of GMAC Mortgage, which funds your Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC).

We understand you may have some questions. Please feel free to contact our toll-free Homeowner Hotline at (888) 926-3480 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. EST, or refer to <http://www.kcclic.net/rescap> for additional information regarding ResCap's Chapter 11 reorganization.

Peter Kravitz, Trustee

Dear Mr Kravitz

Thank you for the prompt distribution of my claim that I received on 8-17-16.

Please provide copy of all information used to reduce my claim to $2056.00.

If this information is not available to you please advance my request to the person who can provide the answer, or provide their contact information to me.

Thank you for any assistance you can provide and thank you again for your prompt distribution of the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust.
